LANDSCAPE SERVICE. Our Landscape Department is handled by trained Landscape Architects and is ready to assist ably in any type of planting. This service assures the customer of satisfactory arrangement and results, utilizing an expert selection of plants as to height, color and time of bloom, suitability to sun or shade, adaptability to soils and exposure.

This service also includes a visit for consultation and an analysis of the grounds possibilities and advice for the owners respecting the arrangement of their land for use and enjoyment, valuable suggestions toward a general or special treatment to be made and a full understanding with the clients may then be reached.

DELIVERIES AND PLANTING. Prompt deliveries of freshly dug stock are made within Metropolitan Detroit and adjoining areas. You may also arrange for us to plant the material when delivered.

OUR SINCERE APPRECIATION IS expressed to our many customers for their continued patronage in the past. For the future, we hope to render even better service and with an increased stock and improved facilities we are bidding for new business.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial data and for providing a clear audit trail. The records should be kept up-to-date and should be accessible to all relevant parties.

2. The second part of the document outlines the procedures for handling incoming payments. It is important to ensure that all payments are received in full and that the correct amount is recorded. Any discrepancies should be investigated immediately and reported to the appropriate authority.

3. The third part of the document describes the process for issuing invoices. Invoices should be issued promptly and accurately, reflecting the actual goods or services provided. It is also important to ensure that the correct terms and conditions are included on each invoice.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the need for regular reconciliation of accounts. This involves comparing the company's records with the bank statements and other external records to ensure that they are in agreement. Any differences should be identified and explained.

5. The fifth part of the document outlines the requirements for the annual financial statements. These statements should be prepared in accordance with the relevant accounting standards and should provide a clear and concise summary of the company's financial performance over the year.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial data and for providing a clear audit trail. The records should be kept up-to-date and should be accessible to all relevant parties.

7. The seventh part of the document outlines the procedures for handling incoming payments. It is important to ensure that all payments are received in full and that the correct amount is recorded. Any discrepancies should be investigated immediately and reported to the appropriate authority.

8. The eighth part of the document describes the process for issuing invoices. Invoices should be issued promptly and accurately, reflecting the actual goods or services provided. It is also important to ensure that the correct terms and conditions are included on each invoice.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the need for regular reconciliation of accounts. This involves comparing the company's records with the bank statements and other external records to ensure that they are in agreement. Any differences should be identified and explained.

10. The tenth part of the document outlines the requirements for the annual financial statements. These statements should be prepared in accordance with the relevant accounting standards and should provide a clear and concise summary of the company's financial performance over the year.
